

Labor, okay, I lose, I accept that. What my amendment does is say that we have traditionally, for a number of years, used the 90 day approach to this adjustment. Who gives those folks out there, who will be eligible for the benefits, the.... Yes, I'm thinking, Vard. Who gives them the.... This is unusual that Hall would be tongue-tied. Who gives them the benefit of any type of information that they are not going to receive that benefit this year? Who lets them know in advance? I mean what we are doing is we are taking care of the Department of Labor. We are not taking care of the individuals through the Hefner amendment. All I ask, all I ask, through my amendment, is that we give them the same...we handle them in the same manner that we've handled them traditionally in the past. Senator Hefner, himself, said that for 11 years that he has been down here traditionally we have done it in the manner that would require that it take effect 90 days after the session. All my amendment does is say, fine, Senator Hefner, your idea has been adopted, we will do that down the road, effective January 1, 1988, but for this year only, for this year only we will do things status quo, as they have been done to date. I think it is a very, very fair amendment. I would urge the body to adopt it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

PRESIDENT: The question is the adoption of the Hall amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Senator Hall, please.

SENATOR HALL: Mr. President, we are a few votes short of the...those necessary to complete this transaction without having to...

PRESIDENT: Did you want a call of the house?

SENATOR HALL: Request a call of the house, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay.

SENATOR HALL: Mr. President, I would also authorize call ins.

PRESIDENT: All right. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 1 nay to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber, please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Call in votes are authorized.
